State Insane and Idiotic Asylum.

DRS. HAWTHORNE & LORYEA,

PHYSICIANS & PROPRIETORS.

IN PURSUANCE OF A LAW PASSED BY THE present Legislative Assembly, the Oregon State Insane Idiotic Asylum is located in East Portland, in this county, Drs. Hawthorne & Loryea, Physicians and Proprietors.

The Proprietors of the above Establishment will immediately make additions to their present buildings in order to offer accommodations to all who are unfortunate enough to need the care and treatment of an Insane or Idiotic Asylum.

It is specially requested on the part of County Judges, guardians and friends of this class of patients, to have them immediately conveyed to the Asylum, so that they may be properly cared for before the inclement weather sets in.

THE INDIGENT WILL BE SUPPORTED AT THE EXPENSE OF THE STATE, and a record of debt made against them. For further particulars apply to

WILCOX & GIBBS

SEWING MACHINE.

We would call attention to the following facts in connection with this Machine, which renders it superior to any other in use:

It forms a flat elastic seam which will not rip in wear;

It is entirely noiseless;

A patented device prevents its being turned backward;

The needle cannot be set wrong;

Can be used successfully without other instructions than accompany the Machine;

It received the Gold Medal of the American Institute in 1863. For particulars, enquire of

A boy driving a carriage in a funeral procession at Albany, N. Y., lately, was found, on arriving at the grave, to be frozen to death.

The London Times is said to have been lately bought completely over to the interest of the Palmerston ministry by sundry good things in the way of court honors and plunder.

A hydraulic company at Bridgeport, Nevada county, Cal., recently washed up a nine month's sluicing and obtained $105,000. Their expenses were $45,000. Nett profits, $57,000.

A letter from the mouth of the Rio Grande says: The rebels are hanging and imprisoning all men who showed any favor to the Union forces at the time Brownsville was occupied. All property of suspected persons is confiscated."

One of the Big Trees in the Calaveras grove, named the "Old Maid," fell down last week. The old lady was about twelve hundred years of age and had attained the height of three hundred and twenty-five feet and was thirty feet across the butt.

In Oxford, N. H., is a tombstone with the following epitaph upon it:

"To all my friends I bid adieu,
A more sudden death you never knew;
As I was leading an old mare to drink,
She kicked and killed me quicker'n a wink.

Some of the prisoners taken from Hood's army passed through Louisville for the North a few days ago. When asked what they thought of Hood, they replied: "Why, bully for Hood! He said we should winter in the North, and we intend to do it!"

The relative strength of the North and the South may be very accurately measured by a comparison of the entire section in rebellion with the Empire State, at the late election. New York gave 720,000 votes, which is within 135,796 votes of the total given in rebeldom in 1860.

A member of Gen. Meade's staff recently saw a ragged boy with an uncommon large muffler about the neck. He asked him what was the matter with him, and he replied that he had got the itch. The officer investigated, and found important dispatches to Gen. Lee.

The following is the number of persons which the largest churches in Europe will contain: St. Peter's, Rome, 54,000; Cathedral at Milan, 37,000; St. Paul's, at London, 25,000; Mosque of St. Sophia, Constantinople, 23,000; Cathedral at Pisa, 13,000; St. Mark's, of Venice, 7,000.

A man in Columbia, Tuolumne county, Cal., among other curious relics, has in his possession portions of Indians, that were dug out of the ground at Gold Springs, about fifty feet below the surface; which, judging from the size of them, must have been those of men eight or ten feet in height.

The British authorities are somewhat disturbed at the testimony of a witness, who had been engaged as fireman on the rebel pirate Rappahannock. He testified that a government tug took the ship out of Sheerness harbor. He said he had been in the service and knew a tug when he saw it, and he could not be mistaken.

The Indianapolis Journal says it has been too much the habit of newspaper correspondents to accuse Senator Richardson of getting drunk. This is vile slander, adds the editor in a vein of irony that even Junius could not excel, "for the Senator from Illinois never gets drunk, though he has seriously contemplated getting sober!"

Of the 40,000 Chinese in California, about 30,000 are engaged as miners, each paying, or supposed to pay, a monthly tax of $4—$12,000 a month—to the State and county revenue. About 2,500 work on ranches; about 1,000 as cooks and private servants. Nearly 2,000 are females, and nearly 5,000 are merchants and traders.—Stockton Independent.

A REBEL OPINION OF GRANT.—The Richmond Enquirer discourses of Gen. Grant in the following language:

Among all the antagonists that have confronted Gen. Lee in this war, none have given that great chief more trouble or occasioned more anxiety than Gen. Grant. Although he has been repeatedly brought to the ground, beaten and discomfited, like a reckless prize fighter covered by his own blood, and blinded by the blows that were rained upon him, he has dashed again into the fray, and again and again suffered the mortification of defeat, without once acknowledging that he has been whipped. And he still clings with death-like tenacity. The resources of an immense power are at his back. He calls for reinforcements to take the place of the tens of thousands over whose graves he stalks like the demon of death, and they are furnished. With his peculiar, obstinate, bull-dog nature, Gen. Grant is a firm believer in the "attrition" process, which wears out by repeated blows what is not accomplished by one.

THE GWIN COLONY.—The Democratic Press, official exponent of the new rebel scheme to colonize Mexico, says:

No project has transpired of annexing the Northern States of Mexico to France. The dominion vests in Maximilian; the property is held in trust and administered by Dr. Gwin, as security for the payment of the claim of France against Mexico. The resident subject does not affirm allegiance to Louis Napoleon, but to Maximilian. Dr. Gwin is the agent of both, without being the subject of either—a disinterested party in his relations to both sovereignties. He is no Duke, as has been reported, nor holds any title or order of nobility from either. France is but the ally of Mexico; not a partner in the government. Mr. Gillian is the accredited agent of the Emperor of Mexico in San Francisco, and M. deGazotte, Consul-General of France.

We state these facts upon indubitable proof; not from any personal interest in the matter, but because the public have a right to be correctly informed, and we do not intend to be placed in the position of giving false information.

ANY CONGRESSMAN FOR SALE?—A Washington correspondent says:

Several members of Congress have each received a letter from a person offering to pay their election expenses if they will appoint his son a Cadet to West Point. They are signed by the same person, and precisely alike. The different members of Congress to whom the letters were sent look upon West Point Academy as too sacred to be approached in any such way, and that merit and worth are alone the qualifications which should be considered in the appointment of Cadets. Here is the letter:

NEW YORK, Dec. 7, 1864.

DEAR SIR: You have, I am informed, an appointment of a Cadet to West Point. My son desires to enter the army, where many of his near relatives have served and died.

Your election expenses have been large. Can I have the appointment and be permitted to refund to you, for party uses, such portion thereof as you may name. Truly yours.

The young man can at once remove into your district.

FUN IN IDAHO.—The Idaho World gives the following as an illustration of the rivalry existing between two of the enterprising towns in that Territory:

The generous emulation between the rival cities of Idaho and Placerville culminated last Tuesday in a dog fight between the two representative dogs of the respective towns. The fight lasted an hour and ten minutes, leaving Idaho master of the well-fought field and of the $250 stake. At the conclusion of the contest John Cody, President of the Idaho Sliding Club, challenged the Placerville Club to a race with sleighs, for $1,000. The challenge has not been accepted, and Idaho City remains dominant and triumphant on the hills.

SENATOR FROM MICHIGAN.—Jacob M. Howard has been re-elected by the Legislature of Michigan to the United States Senate. The State does herself honor in returning this faithful and capable representative. Howard, now sixty years of age, is a native of Vermont. He went to Michigan in 1832, and since then has been closely interested in public affairs. He was first elected to Congress in 1840, serving two years, the State then having but one member. In 1854, he was chosen Attorney General of the State, serving in all sixty years. In 1862 he was elected to the United States Senate, in place of Kinsley S. Bingham, deceased. He has been an active member of the Military, Judiciary, Land Claims and Pacific Railroad Committees.—N. Y. Trib.

TUESDAY MORNING FEBRUARY 21 1865

A Foreign Protectorate for the Rebels

The Richmond State recently contained a proposition that the Southern States seek the protection of European powers by offering to become their colonies. If the rebels ever ask for this protectorate they confess their incapability to maintain what they have heretofore they have termed their "independence." In this event, foreign protection would be totally unjustifiable. The rebels themselves have never heretofore urged foreign intervention save on the ground that they could successfully defy the authority and arms of the United States Government. Should England or France feel able to assume this protectorate we hardly think they would so dare brave the moral sentiment of the world as thus to violate international law by giving protection to the Southern States, when those States, by the simple petition for a protectorate confess they cannot make themselves a nation. Possibly there was a time when European powers seriously contemplated interference in the affairs of this nation. But we think there is now little to fear from such a source. Interference in our struggle by European powers, except as mediators chosen by ourselves means now, as ever, war. We think the time has passed when such a war would disrupt this Union. We cannot indeed afford such a war except in veritable self defense. It would add greatly to the sum of our national calamities, but it would, we believe, arouse strength, now latent, sufficient for the evil hour. But neither France nor England can afford such a war, and of course they cannot afford to accept the Southern States as colonies or quasi colonies.

The protectorate proposition is supposed by many to have been originated by Davis. But if so, it is only the more remarkable as a confession of rebel weakness. The proposition is ridiculed in all its bearings by prominent rebels. The Richmond Whig very sensibly regards the protectorate, if accepted by any European nation, as a question of war between such nation and the United States. What it says is above the average of Richmond journalistic wisdom:

"England cannot colonize us if she would and we think it pretty certain she would not if she could. In the beginning of this war if she had recognized us, as she should have done, and declared her determination to compel a strict observance of the rules of blockade, laid down by herself at Paris and subscribed by all the maritime powers of Europe, she might easily have put an end to the struggle before it was six months old. The Yankees at that time held her in mortal terror. They were ignorant of their own strength, and held that of England in an awe approaching superstition. She might have dictated her own terms, and they would have subscribed to them without hesitation. But Yankeedom has now a most undue opinion of its own strength, and a contempt for the strength of England warranted only by the cowardly policy her [illegible] has thought fit to pursue. Any interference of England would be resented as an insult, and she has not the power to enforce any line of hostile policy she may adopt. She has [illegible] the Yankees to put their own coasts into such a state of defense as to render them unassailable by her fleets. She has no ships that could encounter the Yankee monitors with any prospect of success, and although it is easy enough for her to build such, yet the probability is that they would not be able to cross the ocean. Monitors are made for coast defense, and not for ocean navigation. She could not in all probability, even break up the blockade of our ports, far less send an army and fleet here to assist us in driving away the Yankees, preparatory to returning to colonial vassalation. We think it, therefore, hardly worth while to enquire into the expediency of returning to the arms of Old England, seeing Old England could not receive us if she would. We must fight it out with the Yankees. The alternative presented is death or slavery. We hope our people have not yet come to that point that they hesitate in their choice."

Southern Newspaper Reports.

The Richmond Sentinel editor draws a long breath and announces that previous to the adjournment of the North Carolina Legislature an effort to take from the table of the Senate the Peace resolutions offered by Mr. Pool, failed by a vote of 19 to 21.

The Richmond Whig, of the 30th, draws an appalling picture of the condition of things in North Carolina. It says:

The condition of the counties in Western North Carolina is reported to be truly distressing. Deserters, bushwhackers and tories from East Tennessee are constantly invading that section, robbing, burning, stealing everything they can carry off and murdering our people. The citizens are mostly unprovided with the necessary means of defence. In fact there are but very few men left to fight the marauders—even if they were ever so well prepared with arms and ammunition.

Governor Vance in his address delivered on the recent occasion of his inauguration for a second term, at Raleigh, uses this language:

There is one great danger against which I earnestly pray our people to be warned. Disunion, distraction, division of sentiment and aim leading to civil feuds, domestic violence and political death. If crushed by overwhelming numbers on the field of battle, we are guiltless of the unavoidable result; But we can surely avoid, if we will internal violence and self-destruction. There is no greater enemy of his country and of his race than him who would foment our passions to the end. Let all our movements whether of peace or war be in solid columns; our people at home as in front, standing in the line of battle facing one way and together. Then victory is not only doubly assured but thrice glorious and defeat will be robbed of half of its calamities.

The Lynchburg Virginian makes the painful and perhaps alarming statement that "the gallant and high souled Breckinridge is chafing like a lion deeply wounded at the result of the enemy's audacious raid into his department." What that "gallant and high souled" individual proposes to do about it however, the Virginian does not say.

The Augusta Constitutional appears to be the novel character of an expounder of Gen Sherman's political views and expectations, and even of his personal hopes! Here is what that veracious sheet has the audacity to say, in his name after declaring him "a thorough fanatic upon the subject of restoring the glorious Union."

He says slavery will exist in the South after the conclusion of peace, let the war terminate as it may; that Lincoln's proclamations in reference to its abolition are simply means for the restoration of the Union; that the Supreme Court have, nor will not sustain him; neither will the federal government attempt to abolish slavery, but will leave it to the states returning to the Union to settle it; and that he (Sherman) expects to own a thousand slaves in the South one of these days.

The Sentinel (Jeff. Davis own personal kind organ) prays and begs for some crumb of comfort from the foreign nations that have contemptuously refused to recognize the sham Confederacy, in such language as this:

What we have said we repeat and we are sure that we express in it the [illegible] of almost all among us who have not some [illegible] of sympathy with the Yankees or some [illegible] mania of hate against England. [illegible] unfortunate as to fail in our conflict with our enemies. If we should be overwhelmed [illegible] destroyed by faction, give us [illegible] association with England, France, [illegible]—any other rather than subjugation by the Yankees. THE FLORIDA PIRATES BULLYING BRAZIL.—A diary kept by Charles Quinn, chief engineer of the Anglo-rebel pirate Florida, has lately come to light. It embraces the period between January 1863 and March 17 1864, and reveals many curious and important facts. Here is a brief entry in it, which shows how confidently and with what success the governors [illegible] on the power of [illegible] dence to overcome the scruples it weak kneed officials in foreign ports:

We have received via Holland a letter from Japan three days later than the news [illegible] It has been already stated that the Prince of Nagato having refused to pay the [illegible] indemnity stipulated in the treaty [illegible] When we learn that this singular [illegible] sentence was approved by the Mikado [illegible] Tycoon—the spiritual and temporal [illegible] Japan—and that the number of servants [illegible] men and [illegible] women [illegible] children. The Prince [illegible] first minister [illegible] English [illegible] Admiral Kuper. The minister on arriving at Yeddo waited on the representatives of France, Holland, America and Russia [illegible] them to interceed with the Tycoon [illegible] Prince his master who had decided on executing all the provisions of the treaty and immediately paying the sums due. Such was the situation of affairs at the last date.

"DIRT CHEAP."—An acquaintance relates [illegible] incident which is too good to lose, and [illegible] promise to never divulge the secret as to who the negotiators were we are permitted to use the substance for the edification of a phunny item. Mr A [illegible] a gentleman lately arrived from [illegible] Francisco and he is very anxious to purchase [illegible] estate in Portland. [illegible] man B [illegible] no compunction of conscience [illegible] the fact and instantly [illegible] situated at [illegible] The subject of course [illegible] rising city. [illegible] sures B that he wishes to buy candidly he is willing to pay a fair price for good property. [illegible] it." "Come [illegible] dutch op." The pair start off together in the direction of [illegible] B [illegible] all the way about the superiority of his lots leading through mud holes [illegible] about half an hour when they finally reached the spot and began negotiation. The price was finally fixed as follows [illegible] $1,700 for [illegible] and so on enumerating half a block when A put a stop to further remarks saying, "Do you call that dirt cheap," and left the speculator to walk off alone. The best of the joke is to be told—B had no authority whatever to act in the premises owned not a foot of the ground and was merely assuming to speculate a little knowing that he could purchase the lots at one half that amount less from the rightful owner.

OF NO USE.—Lately Mr Harbaugh in connection with his desirable improvements at the corner of Columbia and First streets, constructed a good and substantial sidewalk over the ravine between Jefferson and Columbia streets but [illegible] almost entirely a useless improvement from the fact that above it on the streets leading either way there is nothing but mud, and few persons are willing to risk themselves in "sloshing about" in that direction. Mr H has done a good work however which others would do well to pattern after. There is no reason why this vicinity should not be enabled to have good streets and good sidewalks—and we shall hail the day when such things are amended or improved by those having authority.

MUD SPRINGS.—This place, lately so frequently mentioned in our dispatches as the scene of the principal Indian depredations, is located in the vicinity of Court House Rock, known to almost every one who has crossed the Plains by the Platte River route. Shinn's Ferry on that river is seventy five miles west of Omaha, about twelve miles below Columbus and the crossing of Loup Fork. Julesburg is on the south side of the Platte, nearly opposite the union of the north and south forks. Mud Springs is on the south side of North Platte about fifty miles above Julesburg, and twelve miles below Court House Rock.

OREGON'S BIRTH DAY.—Either through carelessness, or from an unusual amount of labor on our hands last anniversary of St Valentine, we omitted to note that it was also the anniversary of the birth of Oregon. On the 14th day of February, 1859, the act admitting Oregon into the Union passed Congress—and we date our Statehood from that period. What progress we have made is easily observed at a glance, and what assistance we are to the General Government is well understood at head quarters.

THE CHAIN GANG.—Fifteen days' time is lost to the city by the want of a proper ordinance providing for a chain gang by the commitments [illegible] Police Court yesterday. The frequent visitor at the Police Court will become disgusted with the "appearance" unless they are set to work. Persons committing crime within the city limits, are unable to pay the costs of prosecution, should be made to work it out on the streets as provided in the charter, and we shall never know whether [illegible] plan is feasible or not, unless it is tried. Other cities have found it profitable, and why can't this, where there are such excellent opportunities" [illegible] at work?

THE BOY CASE.—Albert Rankin was brought before Judge McCoy yesterday, on a charge of stabbing his sister, which affair was noticed in the OREGONIAN the day after its occurrence. The evidence brought out at the examination was insufficient to warrant conviction, and after being reprimanded very justly by the Judge his case was dismissed from Court. We do not allude to this case in particular, as the only one deserving of the attention of our State authorities, but it strikes us that a Reform School based upon correct principles, would be of benefit in matters of that kind.

BAGGAGE CARS.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt yesterday carried on the first trip an improved arrangement for the transportation of through baggage for passengers. Trunks, etc, for the Dalles, are placed into the cab, a kind of baggage car, which is transferred from one boat to the other across the portage on the regular cars of the railroad, and are thus taken through each way every day. The arrangement saves the handling of baggage, but whether it is really any economy to transport a cumbersome truck the entire length of travel remains to be seen as we understand the arrangement is but an experiment.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The following cases were disposed of in Recorder's Court yesterday before for violation of city ordinances. James Brad[illegible] the champion in the late pedestrian feat walked off to jail for five days in default of $20 and costs. Albert Holden committed for four days in default of $10 and costs. James Cole and James Ca[illegible] were each committed for three days in default of $5 and costs. John Wolff paid his fine and together with Lewis Gill was discharged.

WASHINGTON BALL.—We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to be present to-morrow evening and participate in the festivities of Company B, at their first annual ball, to be given for the purpose of raising funds to procure a new uniform for the members. We trust at least [illegible] hundred tickets may be sold for the benefit of the company, as it is certainly a worthy organization and one which we should encourage and sustain.

PRESENT TO CAPT TURNBULL.—We have been furnished with the correspondence of the Mother of the Sisters of Charity at Vancouver presenting Capt Turnbull with a handsome time piece for his new steamer [illegible] Troup, as a testimonial of the politeness that she and all the members of her community have ever received. Such presents speak of an abundant estimation for Capt Turnbull and his officers.

BUSINESS IMPROVING.—Business is beginning to put on some considerable pretensions. The hotel are all filled with travelers, and yesterday was about the liveliest day we have seen for a number of months. Business men are anxious for a breaking up of the ice in the Columbia above Celilo hoping to reap the benefit of renewed trade and we expect their hopes will be more than realized.

SURGEON APPOINTED.—Dr F Storrer reported to Col Maury yesterday for duty as Surgeon of the 1st Oregon Cavalry, vice W H Watkins mustered out. Dr Storrer is a graduate of the Pennsylvania University we understand and is mustered into the service at the direction of Brig Gen Alvord, after a favorable examination before the Medical Board at Fort Vancouver.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—The Sunday School of the M. E. Church in this city propose giving a concert to-morrow evening, in aid of the library [illegible] The price of admission has been placed at 50 cents and the friends [illegible] cause are invited to attend. The exercises take place at the Church on Taylor street.

[illegible] There is a queer individual in [illegible] has been troubled [illegible] desire to know the exact depth of a certain [illegible] His curiosity was [illegible] yesterday [illegible] a wagon [illegible] the gutter [illegible] scene reporting mud above the quarter deck.

WILLAMETTE THEATRE.—This evening Mrs Getzler takes a benefit at Willamette Theatre. [illegible] Portland [illegible] will be produced this season [illegible] a crowded house.

SNOW AND RAIN.—Yesterday morning the ground was quite white with frost and snow the weather being unpleasant during the day and besides [illegible] rain [illegible] evidence of its [illegible] worth.

STREET MONUMENTS.—Surveyor Burrage engaged yesterday in setting the monuments to govern the street surveys of this city in future which will save a vast amount of expense to tax payers.

Dirt Cheap —An acquaintance relates an incident which is too good to lose and on a promise to never divulge the secret as to whom the [illegible] were we are permitted to use the [illegible] the [illegible] of a phunny item Mr A is a gentleman lately arrived from San [illegible] and is very anxious to purchase real [illegible] in Portland [illegible] B who is [illegible] with little or no compunction [illegible] the fact and instantly hunts [illegible] who is [illegible] situated at his [illegible] on a rainy day. The subject of course turns [illegible] property in the fast rising city A [illegible] that he wishes to buy candidly he is willing to pay a fair price for good property [illegible] has [illegible] The [illegible] start off together in the [illegible] B, haunting all the way about [illegible] property [illegible] lots leading A [illegible] and [illegible] ways for about half an hour when they finally reached the spot and began negotiation The price was finally fixed as [illegible] $1,000 for lot [illegible] $1,200 for that [illegible] comprising half a block when A put a stop to further remarks saying [illegible] and left the speculator to walk [illegible] alone The best of the joke is to be told—B had no authority whatever to act in the premises [illegible] the ground and was merely [illegible] a little knowing that he [illegible] the lots at one half that amount or less from the rightful owner

[illegible] —Lately Mr Harleigh in connection with his desirable improvements at the corner of Columbia and First streets, constructed a [illegible] substantial sidewalk over the ravine between Jefferson and Columbia streets but it is almost entirely a useless improvement from the fact that there is on the streets leading either way there is nothing but mud, and few persons are willing to risk themselves in sloshing about in that direction Mr H has done a good work [illegible] which others will [illegible] well to pattern after There is no reason why this vicinity should not [illegible] have good streets and good side walks—[illegible] shall hail the day when such things are [illegible] improved by those having authority

Mud Springs —This place lately so frequently mentioned in our dispatches as the scene of the principal Indian depredations is located in the vicinity of [illegible] known to almost every one who has crossed the Plains by the Platte River route Shinn's Ferry, on that river, is seventy five miles west of Omaha about twelve miles below Columbus and the crossing of Loup Fork. Julesburg is on the south side of the Platte nearly opposite the union of the north and south forks Mud Springs is on the south side of North Platte, about fifty miles above Julesburg and twelve miles below Court House Rock

Oregon's Birth Day —Either through carelessness or from an unusual amount of labor on our hands last anniversary of St Valentine, we omitted to note that it was also the anniversary of the birth of Oregon On the 14th day of February 1859, the act admitting Oregon into the Union passed Congress—and we date our State hood from that period. What progress we have made is easily observed at a glance, and what assistance we are to the General Government is well understood at head quarters

The Chain Gang —Fifteen days' time is lost to the city by the want of a proper ordinance providing for a chain gang by the commitments in Police Court yesterday. The frequent visitors of the Police Court will become disgusted with their appearance unless they are set to work Persons committing crime within the city limits, and unable to pay the costs of prosecution, should be made to work it out on the streets, as provided by the charter, and we shall never know whether the plan is feasible or not unless it is tried. Other cities have found it profitable, and why can't this, where there are such excellent opportunities" for street work

The Boy Case —Albert Rankin was brought before Judge McCoy yesterday, on a charge of stabbing his sister, which affair was noticed in the Oregonian the day after its occurrence The evidence brought out at the examination was insufficient to warrant conviction, and after being reprimanded very justly by the Judge his case was dismissed from Court We do not allude to this case in particular as the only one deserving of the attention of our State authorities but it strikes us that a Reform School based upon correct principles, would be of benefit in matters of that kind

Baggage Cars —The steamer Wilson G. Hunt yesterday carried on the first trip an improved arrangement for the transportation of through baggage for passengers Trunks, etc. for the Dalles, are placed into the cab a kind of baggage car which is transferred from one boat to the other, across the portage on the regular cars of the rail road, and are thus taken through each way every day The arrangement saves the handling of baggage, but whether it is really any economy to transport a cumbersome truck the entire length of travel remains to be seen, as we understand the arrangement is but an experiment

Recorder's Court —The following cases were disposed of in Recorder's Court yesterday being for violation of city ordinances James Brady, the champion in the late pedestrian feat walked off to jail for five days in default of $20 and costs Albert Holden committed for four days in default of $10 and costs [illegible] Cole and James Cavern were each committed for three days in default of $5 and costs [illegible] paid his fine and together with [illegible] was discharged

Washington Ball —We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to be present to-morrow evening and participate in the festivities of Company B, at their first annual ball, to be given for the purpose of raising funds to procure a new uniform for the members We trust at least one hundred tickets may be sold for the benefit of the company as it is certainly a worthy organization, and one which we should encourage and sustain

Present to Capt Turnbull —We have been furnished with the correspondence of the Matron of the Sisters of Charity at Vancouver, presenting Capt Turnbull with a handsome time piece for his new steamer Fanny Troup as a testimonial of the politeness that she, and all the members of her community have ever received Such presents speak of an abundant estimation for Captain Turnbull and his officers

Business Improving —Business is beginning to put on some considerable pretensions. The hotels are all filled with travelers and yesterday was about the liveliest day we have seen for a number of months Business men are anxious for a breaking up of the ice in the Columbia above Celilo, hoping to reap the benefit of renewed trade and we expect their hope will be more than realized.

Surgeon Appointed —Dr F Storror reported to Col Maury yesterday for duty as Surgeon of the 1st Oregon Cavalry vice W H Watkins mustered out Dr Storror is a graduate of the Pennsylvania University we understand, and is mustered into the service at the direction of Brig Gen Alvord after a favorable examination before the Medical Board at Fort Vancouver

Sunday School Exhibition —The Sunday School of the M E Church in this city propose giving a concert to-morrow evening, in aid of the library of their school The price of admission has been placed at 50 cents and the friends of the cause are invited to attend The exercises will take place at the Church on Taylor street

Curiosity Gratified —There is a queer individual in this city who has been troubled with a desire to know the exact depth of a certain mud hole on Morrison street His curiosity was gratified yesterday upon seeing a wagon loaded with wood sink below the hubs [illegible] and he [illegible] the scene reporting mud above the quarter deck "

Willamette Theatre —This evening Mrs. C Cutzler takes a benefit at Willamette Theatre One of the best plays that was ever attempted to be performed in [illegible] Portland theatre will be produced on this occasion, and for her benefit we hope to see a crowded house

Snow and Rain —Yesterday morning the ground was quite white with frost and snow, the weather became pleasant during the day and besides the usual rain the sun gave us evidence of its shining worth

Street Monuments —Surveyor Burrage was engaged yesterday in setting the monuments to govern the street surveys of this city in future, which will save a vast amount of expense to the tax payers

No Dispatches —The line was reported down between this city and San Francisco last evening which leaves us without any dispatches whatever

Lecture —Rev G H Atkinson will deliver a lecture at the Congregational Church this evening on the subject of Christian [illegible]

Circuit Court —[illegible] of Rosenheim vs Fisher was tried [illegible] in the Circuit Court yesterday and submitted [illegible]

A [illegible] Tragedy in the Sultan's House hold —A Constantinople letter dated 14th November says

Djemila Sultana the third daughter of the late Sultan, now in her twenty second year was married to Mahmoud Jellaldin Pasha The position of a subject upon whom the Sultan confers the hand of one of his daughters is anything but an enviable one as the princesses treat their unhappy husbands [illegible] their slaves, or rather worse for the latter have not the misery of appearing in a false position It is well known that the husbands of the daughters of the late Sultan—[illegible] Djemila—have led the most wretched of lives from the arbitrariness and jealousy of their wives The tragedy which occurred on the 12th instant arose from this cause The Sultana Djemila from causes well or ill founded became jealous of one of her slaves whom she imagined was regarded with some favor by her husband In her [illegible] rage against the unfortunate girl she ordered one of her eunuchs to cut her head off, which was done [illegible] The Sultana then determined to extend her revenge to her husband and coolly directed that the girl's head should be placed under a cover at the Pasha's dinner table It is the custom in Turkey for the [illegible] families to dine apart from their women On the day in question the Sultana seated herself on the divan—a long sofa extending across the room—previous to her husband's entering the dining room On his arrival [illegible] customary he went up to his imperial spouse and rendered her the usual homage She requested him to proceed with his dinner When seated he called to the servants present to remove the cover which is thrown over the tray which forms the top of the table, to his surprise they hesitated and shrank back The Sultana then called to him to remove it himself [illegible] the servants for their [illegible] The unhappy Pasha having his [illegible] took off the cover and the object before him lay the gory head of the murdered girl He reeled and fell back a corpse Previous to taking off the cover he had drank some sherbet and whether this was poisoned, as some imagine, or that the shock produced apoplexy has not been ascertained, as no post mortem examination has been held It will of course be thought that the imperial murderess was at once seized and placed in the hands of justice On the contrary Djemila Sultana a princess of the imperial family daughter of Sultan Abdul Medjid, and niece of the reigning Sultan has up to the present moment remained in her house unmolested and the only notice taken of the matter has been that her imperial uncle is very angry with her

How Richmond Papers are Obtained —The manner in which regular files of Richmond papers are obtained would astonish some of the slow people of the country if they understood it The Government is generally indebted to the newspaper press of the country for its first copies of the leading rebel newspapers Two days after Jeff Davis message was printed in Richmond a newspaper man here, a Washington correspondent presented Mr Lincoln with an advance copy J H Painter the indefatigable correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, presented Mr Fessenden with the copy of the report of the rebel Secretary of the Treasury when it was but two days old On Saturday last at ten o'clock in the morning I sat down to a table whereon lay copies of the Richmond dailies of the previous Thursday A large proportion of those journals come direct through the lines at Petersburg but some come direct across the country to Alexandria Blockade runners bring them—pickets make exchanges for the New York journals, and in different ways the files are kept perfect —Washington Correspondence Springfield Republican

Gen Sherman in a private letter states that the only reason why he did not bring tens of thousands of negroes out of the interior of Georgia during his recent march, was that he was unable to feed them

WISTAR'S BALSAM

—OF—

WILD CHERRY!

HAS BEEN USED FOR NEARLY

HALF A CENTURY,

WITH THE MOST ASTONISHING SUCCESS IN CURING

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat.
Influenza, Whooping, Cough, Croup,
Liver Complaint, Bronchitis,
Difficulty of Breathing,
Asthma, and every affection of the
THROAT, LUNGS, AND CHEST,

INCLUDING EVEN

CONSUMPTION.

There is scarcely one individual in the community who wholly escapes, during a season, from some one however slightly developed of the above symptoms—a neglect of which might lead to the last named, and most to be dreaded disease in the whole catalogue The power of medicinal gum' of the Wild Cherry Tree over this class of complaints is well known, so great is the good it has performed, and so great the popularity it has acquired

In this preparation, besides the virtues of the Cherry, there are commingled with it other ingredients of like value thus increasing its value ten fold, and forming a Remedy whose power to soothe, to heal to relieve, and to cure disease exists in no other medicine yet discovered

The unequalled success that has attended the application of this medicine in all cases of

has induced many physicians of high standing to employ it in their practice, some of whom advise us of the fact under their own signatures We have space only for the names of a few of these —

The proprietors have letters from all classes of our fellow citizens, from the halls of Congress to the humblest cottage, and even from beyond the seas for the fame and virtue of Wistar's Balsam have extended to the uttermost bounds of the earth without any attempt on our part to introduce it beyond the limits of our own country

TO CALIFORNIANS AND OREGONIANS.

After October 1, 1863, all genuine WISTAR'S BALSAM of WILD CHERRY for the Pacific Coast will be enclosed in a new wrapper which will bear the printed names of both Seth W Fowle & Co, Boston, Mass., and John D Park, Cincinnati, Ohio, as well as facsimile of the signatures of "I. The Falling Snow.

It was a merry morning: All nature laughed with glee,
And the snow-birds hopped from branch to branch of every bending tree,
And the pure white snow descending upon the covered ground,
Fell with a scarce heard murmur—a gentle ticking sound;
When in the window gazing, a beautiful young child,
With golden tresses, smiles of mirth, and eyes so blue and wild,
Cried gayly to his mother, and kept on calling, calling,
"There are angel's feathers, mother, falling, falling, falling."

"My darling child," the mother said and pressed him to her breast,
"Those are but snow-flakes, Charley, upon the earth they rest;
For wearied are they with their long and wind-tossed heavenly way,
Dropping—dropping—dropping from the distant clouds all day."
But still the little one replied, with dreamy, half-closed eyes,
"Does not an angel have two wings, and use them when he flies?"
"Oh! yes he has." And for a time the little one kept calling,
"There are angel's feathers, mother, falling, falling, falling."

Cory O'Lanus on Family Affairs.—The Brooklyn Eagle has a correspondent who knows a thing or two. Hear him:

It is a good thing for a man to pay attention to his family.

Provided he has one.

Married men generally have. So have I.

It is the natural consequence of getting married.

Families, like everything else, are more expensive than they used to be. Shoes and clothes cost a sight now-a-days, and children have mostly good appetites.

Mine have.

Boys will be boys. They can't help it. They are born so. It is their destiny to tear their trousers, and wear out two pair of boots per month; keeping their ma constantly employed like a besieged garrison repairing breeches, and the unfortunate pa paying out currency, under strong conviction that there is nothing like "leather"—to wear out.

I tried copper-toed boots on my heirs. The copper wore well, and I have an idea that copper boots would be a good idea, but I couldn't find a metallic shoe maker to carry it out.

Mrs. O. L. also became attached to copper, and thought it would be an improvement and save sewing if boys' pantaloons were like ships and tea-kettles, copper-bottomed. The suggestion was an A No. 1, but we hadn't tried it yet.

Copper so ran in my head at the time that O'Pake called me a copperhead.

This was the origin of the term.

Mrs. O. L. is a managing woman. She makes trousers for our son Alexander Themistocles, out of mine, when I've done with them. He can get through three pair to my one, ordinarily, and I am obliged to wear out my clothes faster than I used to, to keep him supplied.

I once suggested that it might be within the resources of art and industry to make him a pair out of new material.

Mrs. O. L. said positively that it couldn't be done. It would ruin us. She concluded it was cheaper to cut up a pair I had paid twelve dollars for.

I subsequently found upon inquiry that new cloth for the purpose could have been bought for about two dollars.

I ventured to tell Mrs. O. L., expecting a triumph of male foresight over female lack of judgment.

She gave me a look of scorn, as she wanted to know if I had asked the price of trimmings."

Trimmings were too much for me.

I have been afraid of trimmings ever since. Trimmings, I suppose, means buttons and things.

In addition to clothes, the scion of our house runs up other expenses.

But what is the expense compared with the joy a father feels, when after a days laborous exercise at the office, wrestling with a steel pen, he returns to his domestic retreat, and is met at the gate by a smiling cherubim, who in tones that go to his fond parent's heart, make him forget his troubles, with "Hello, pa, give me a penny."

Your hand instinctively goes to the seat of your affections, your pocket, and draws forth the coveted coin, which is promptly invested in molasses candy.

A Black Surprise.—Some months since, when Lucretia Borgia was being done with slow murder at one of the Eastern theatres, the deathlike silence which prevailed was suddenly interrupted by the sobbing of some tenderhearted female whose sympathetic soul was keenly alive to the unfortunate condition of the aforesaid victims. A modest young man began to be interested in discovering the female whose heart, like his own, was so susceptible to human feeling. While the young Romeo was looking around from the parquette, and scanning the countenances of the fair ones, he thought he experienced a sensation as if something was upon his head. Raising his hand, he found, to his delight, that some young lady had accidentally dropped her cambric handkerchief from the box above. Our young Romeo soon began to discover that there was an opportunity for him to display his gallantry; he arose, and after privately pressing the cambric to his lips, extended it, delicately secured between the tips of his fingers, for the fair claimant to take possession of. At this moment a head protruded over the gallery above, and cried in a low but distinct tone, "Chuck it up, sah!" The young man suddenly raised his eyes and beheld the blackest wench that ever white man looked upon. It is needless to add that he dropped almost lifeless into his seat, and a favored few who chanced to witness this ludicrous scene burst into an uncontrollable fit of laughter.

The First Forger.—For sixty-four years the Bank of England had circulated its paper with freedom: and during this period no attempt had been made to imitate it. He who takes the first step in a new line of wrong-doing has more than the simple act to answer for; and to Richard William Vaughn, a Stafford linen draper, belongs the melancholy celebrity of having led the van in this new phase of crime, in the year 1678. The records of his life do not show want, beggary or starvation urging him, but a simple desire to seem greater than he was. By one of the artists employed—and there were several engaged on different parts of the notes—the discovery was made. The criminal had filled them up to the number of twenty, and deposited them in the hands of a young lady to whom he was attached, as a proof of his wealth. There is no calculating how much longer bank notes might have been free from imitation had this man not shown with what ease they might be counterfeited. From this period forged notes became common.—Notes and Queries.

Rules for Behavior.—If you be a rich man, says Goldsmith, you may enter the room with three loud hems, march deliberately to the chimney, and turn your back upon the fire. If you be a poor man, I advise you to shrink into the room as fast as you can, and place yourself, as usual, upon the side of the chair, in a remote corner. When you are desired to sing in company, I would advise you to refuse, for it is a thousand to one but you torment us with affectation or a bad voice. If you be young, and live with an old man, I advise you not to like gravy; I was disinherited myself for liking gravy. Don't laugh much in public; the spectators that are not as merry as you will hate you, either because they envy your happiness or fancy themselves the subject of your mirth.

Montaigne says that conducting a campaign in war is like playing chess. Our opinion is that it is a game in which all the playing bears a remarkable resemblance to fighting.

A good story is told of an old lady in West Virginia, who owned a large tract of barren land, which she could not sell, and who took the advice of a visitor and poured some petroleum oil along the stream which meandered through it. She sold the land at a fabulous price, the owner agreeing also to give the lady one-tenth of the oil. The old lady thought she had a pretty good joke on the speculators, but the enterprising fellows set up their derrick, and put down an augur, and in a short time they struck a well which yields one hundred barrels of oil per day.

"What made you go into the army, Tom?"

"Well," replied Tom, "I had no wife, and I love war. What made you go to the war, Jack?"

"Well," he replied, "I had a wife, and I loved peace, so I went to the war."

THE WORLD RENOWNED

SINGER SEWING MACHINES!

MANUFACTORY:

182, 184, 186, 188, 191 and 194 Mott street, New York.

MOTTO—"The Singer Sewing Machines are the only Machines that can Sew all kinds of Cloth, and with all kinds of Thread."

Singer's Letter A Family Machine is the best and cheapest Machine in the world for Family Sewing. There is no doubt as to the value of our Machines for manufacturing purposes, but it is only of late that the public began to learn that the essential elements of a Machine best adapted to the heaviest work, would also be the elements to be embodied in a Family Machine.

We would ask for our Letter A Machines the attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want Machines for Light Manufacturing Purposes. They embody the principles of the Manufacturing Machines, making, like them, the interlocked stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for FAMILY SEWING and Light Manufacturing purposes, as our Manufacturing Machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

FAMILY SEWING MACHINES are valuable in proportion to the number of things they can do well. See what ours can do before making a purchase.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their sizes, prices, working capacities, and the best method of purchasing, can obtain it by sending for a copy of the SINGER MANUFACTURING COMPANY'S ILLUSTRATED PAMPHLET, which is entirely devoted to the subject. IT WILL BE SENT GRATIS.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich, and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain tops, distant valleys and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands and the thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

[illegible] Have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months. Speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me.

C. A. FLAGGE.

[illegible], July 28, 1863.

* * * Having been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia and [illegible] out of the house for two years with scrofula and erysipelas, after paying the doctors for [illegible] I have been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.

EDWARD [illegible]

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH ST.,
New York, August 2, 1863.

DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl, [illegible] with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. * * * [illegible] strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully,

Mrs. O. M. DEVOE.

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use. Thy friend,

ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.

REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which is daily increasing with the guests of our house.

SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.

G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.

H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc., etc., etc., etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

NOTICE,

TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS:

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at County Clerk's office, until 10 o'clock, A. M., of Wednesday, the 8th day of March next, for the building of a Court-House on Block 58, in the City of Portland, for use of Multnomah county. A plan and specifications thereof may be seen at the office of the County Clerk of said county. Separate bids are solicited, as follows:

1st.—For the erection and completion of the entire Building, in accordance with said plans and specifications, estimating cost thereof with and without heating apparatus.

2d.—For the erection and completion of a portion only of said Building, viz: Erecting, enclosing, and outside finishing of the building, finishing the basement, jail, offices, and rooms, on the south side of the main entrance hall on the first floor, and for running all the stairs and laying all the floors in accordance with said plans and specifications, estimating cost thereof with and without heating apparatus.

The contract will be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. Each bidder is required to submit with proposals the names of two or more responsible sureties. The Commissioners reserve the privilege of rejecting any and all bids. Payment of contract price to be made in coin.

Published by order of County Commissioners.

H. C. COULSON, Clerk,
Multnomah County.

Solution of Protoxide of Iron,

Has been used with Great Success in Curing

DYSPEPSIA,

Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chills, Boils, Fever, Piles, Scurvy, the Effects of Mercury, &c.,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and all diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY ARE SO NUMEROUS, so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The list of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure is not [illegible] the highest medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the Peruvian Syrup, do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public:

REV. JOHN PIERPONT, THOMAS C. AMORY,
THOMAS A. DEXTER, PETER HARVEY,
S. H. KENDALL, M. D., JAMES C. DUNN,

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the Medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by combination in a way before unknown; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M. D.,

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical physicians and physiologists have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is found specially to

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS and GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners. (See American Medical Monthly, July 6, 1856, page 76.)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr. H. Anders & Co., Physicians and Chemists, New York.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per Bottle.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Reproductive Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor—a result which the CONSTITUTION WATER, and its restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,

CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGURY AND BURNING
OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases and you will ever give praise to
